COLONIAL THEATRE.

Alice Joyce and Big Cast in The Mayor's Secretary, Two Reels.

As a regular Saturday feature the management of the Colonial have selected another Alice Joyce feature for today, this one being entitled The Mayor's Secretary. It is a superb two reel feature dealing with political situations of a decidedly thrilling nature. Alice as the secretary is captured by the opposing party and made a prisoner, hoping thereby to obtain the oner, hoping thereby to obtain the mayor's signature in her absence. This is a charming story and is a typical Alice Joyce film. The Lion Hunter is a Afree Joyce film. The Lion Hunter is a wonderful Selig jungle-zoo animal drama and abounds in situations of a startling and interesting order. Dickson's Diamonds is the Edison drama adapted from the famous Felix Boyd series entitled Below the Dead Line, and excellent comedy rounds out the splendid programme.

Don't forget that Monday The Walls of Jericho, the famous five reel drama, is the attraction extraordinary, with Edmund Breese and Claire Whitney and other famous players in an exclusive production.
"uesday and Wednesday Charles Chapiln is presented in his first Essa-nay release, His New Job, in two

NEXT WEEK AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The Bedore Musical Comedy com-pany, which made such a hit here a few weeks ago, has been booked for a return engagement at this house for all of next week. Three entirely dif-tent shows from those played here on their lost engagement will be played. their last engagement will be played and the usual three performances will be given daily. The bill for the first wo days of the week will be The Bat-At Mt. Calvary Baptist church, preaching morning and evening by the pastor. Bible school at noon, Bible and Literary programme at 3.30, conducted by Mrs. L. Brown. Lord's supported lately for an extra added attraction. Miss McDonald's voice is well known to the owners of the Victor talking machines and she will be beard with delight at all the performances during the entire week. #### DAVIS THEATRE.

The Typhoon, Five Reel Paramount

on the big vaudeville and picture programme. A very popular number is the sparkling musical comedy sketch presented by a clever cast with dainty Pauline Fielding as the Rose of Virginia. At the top rung of the ladder are Daly and Daniels, who more than make good, singing and teiling their stories in a manner to delight. Frank Dale follows them and although there's little to him but skin and bones he foul, "Samson." puts over some dancing eccentricities that have merit. The Paramount feature. The Typhoon, has an all absorbine plot, and the fact that the cast is appointments. Prices 25c to $2. almost wholly made up of celebrated Japanese artists has an added interest. Two other film dramas and a lively kersione with Party and Mabel complete an entertaining programme.

For the first half of next week another fine show has been booked with the big Paramount feature Where the Trail Divides, with Robert Edeson, the distinguished American actor, and an Mathee today at 2.15. Two shows tonight at 6.45 and 8.45. Usual prices. Selwyr
